

The Bradenton Herald

FRIDAY, JULY 29, 1977

BRADENTON, FLORIDA 33505

EARLY FINA

Photography, Carson Baldwin

Mammoth flesh-eating machine

Bill Goldschmitt, left, Longboat Key commercial fisherman, and friends Terry Theis and David Quaderer, both of Bradenton Beach examine the 12-foot, 7-inch tiger shark they caught in 12 feet of water off Bean Point, Anna Maria Island. The shark's fatal mistake came when he bit a smaller shark that already was hooked on Goldschmitt's line. Goldschmitt hopes to sell the monster whole.